

In conjunction with
The Hilton Head Heritage Festival

The Heritage Library Foundation
presents

“Tea with Authors and Actors”

October 6, 2007
1:00 until 3:00 p.m.

The Gazebo Lounge
The Westin Resort and Spa

The Vernazco Family is sponsoring “Tea With Authors and Actors,” hosted by the Island Writers’ Network and the Heritage Library Foundation. Authors Robert Eberly, Jr. and his wife, Katherine Eberly, will share moments from his works on the Civil War and her book on the Merchant Marines of the 1700s and 1800s.

Actor Dan Monahan of Venice, California, will speak of his 1980s roles on Broadway and his movie character, “Pee Wee,” in the Porkey’s Trilogy. Porkey’s was a raunchy, irreverent comedy classic, released in the early 1980s to set the tone for all other teen flicks of that era.

The Island Writers’ Network will introduce their anthology of poems and stories, Hilton Head Island: Unpacked and Staying.

Dordy Freeman will perform on a rare period antique harpsichord.

The price is $25 per person.